

Vive la Suisse et vive le coucou !

A highly detailed, ornate wooden cuckoo clock. The clock face is circular with a reddish-brown background and gold-colored Roman numerals. The hands are also gold-colored. The clock is encased in a dark wood frame with intricate carvings of leaves and flowers. A bird is perched on top of the clock, and another bird is visible on the side. The clock is mounted on a wall with a light-colored, textured background.
